

CONTENTS

	PAGE
CHRONOLOGICAL outline of Froebel's life	. xvi
Chronological list of Froebel's chief writings	. xvii
Bibliography xix

INTRODUCTION

Dominant notes in Froebel's work	1
Sources of Froebel's doctrine—
Early life	2
Idealism	3
Pestalozzi	10
Chief features of Froebel's system	17
Attitude of present-day Froebellians	24
Estimate of Froebel's doctrines	27

PART I

THE EDUCATION OF HUMAN NATURE

CHAPTER I

GENERAL THEORY

Evolution of the divine spirit in man	31
Education passive and protective	32
Regard to universal law of right	35
Development of individual and of race	36
Life and activity	37
Earliest infancy	37
Continuity of development	40
Human life and productive work	42
Summary	44

CHAPTER II

THE STAGE OF INFANCY

	PAGE
Gradual growth of knowledge	46
General relation of mental and bodily activity	47
Control of body, senses, and limbs	47

CHAPTER III

THE STAGE OF CHILDHOOD

Begins with first acquirement of language	49
Education begins with childhood	49
Four-fold life of childhood	49
Play the natural life of childhood	50
Hygiene of childhood	51
Cultivation of the child's intelligence	52
Learning to walk	54
Learning to class and to distinguish things	55
Satisfaction of children's curiosity	55
Apprehension of qualities and of form	56
Drawing	56
Number	58
Imitateness of childhood	60
Need for reform in the training of childhood	61

CHAPTER IV

THE STAGE OF BOYHOOD

Transition from childhood	63
Boyhood the time for instruction	64
Instruction aims at training the will	65
Boyhood and family life	66
Purposive activity of boyhood	68
Boyhood's impulse to explore	69
Gardens for boys	70
Plays of boyhood	71
Boyhood's craving for explanation : story and legend	72

CHAPTER V

FAULTS OF BOYHOOD

	PAGE
Characteristics of actual boys	74
Origin of boyish faults	74
Common boyish faults	76
Possibility of reform	77

CHAPTER VI

FAMILY AND SCHOOL

Relation of school to home	79
Character of a true school	80
Need for schools	81
Choice of subjects of instruction	81
Out-of-school occupations	85

CHAPTER VII

CULTIVATION OF RELIGIOUS SENTIMENT

Object of religious cultivation	86
Fundamental truths of religion	86
Apprehension of spiritual relations	89
Spiritual capacity of boyhood	89
Instruction in religion	90

CHAPTER VIII

CULTIVATION OF BODILY LIFE

Need for physical training	94
Relation of bodily control to the will and to discipline	95
Play in boyhood	96

CHAPTER IX

STUDY OF NATURE

Relation of nature to God	97
Religious value of study of nature	99
Importance of direct study	100
Need to apprehend natural laws	102
Universality of energy	102
The doctrine of sphericity	103